

CONTACT: Manager, Natasha McMillian-Heggins
410-419-2914 or natashia@salimmusic.com

Hip Hop Revisited Makes First Stop in Baltimore

April 18 – Salim will hold his CD release and listening party on Saturday, April 28 at The New Turntable Club. A live band performance will top off the night's festivities. Local favorites Green Tea, Head-Roc, and Wendel Patrick will be showcased as well. Tickets are $8.00 in advance/$12.00 at the door.

Hip Hop Revisited "picks up where the Roots' Things Fall Apart left off," said author and radio talk show host Ryan Greene. Salim has indeed built a fan base in the Baltimore/D.C. metropolitan area that is diverse and hungry for a more organic, satisfying dose of hip hop.

His group, Salim & The Music Lovers', performances within the past two years have included opening up for Slick Rick, Method Man, Fertile Ground, and Black Sheep and at prominent urban venues such as the African-American Heritage Festival (AFRAM).

Representatives from all media outlets are invited to review Hip Hop Revisited and attend the April 28 performance as well. If a representative is unable to make it, a request to review the CD is encouraged.

Visit www.myspace.com/salimmusic to hear music samples, view performance photos, and to see upcoming performance dates. Also read an interview from Frostburg University's online newspaper at: www.thebottomlineonline.org/home/index.cfm?event=displayArticle&ustory\_id=616c3b6e-0fdf-4d15-8ef1-f0ce87d10ba9.

For more information on the April 28 affair or requests for hi-resolution images contact: Manager, Natasha McMillian-Heggins; 410-419-2914 or natashia@salimmusic.com

WHAT: Salim's CD Release Party for Hip Hop Revisited

WHEN: Saturday, April 28, 2007

WHERE: The New Turntable Club, 2139 Jefferson Street, Baltimore, MD, 21205

COST: $8 advance/$12 door